THE MONUMENT TO GILLIES

The Bugler Boy of Light Horse Harry Lee's Legion.

UNVEILED AT BATTLE GROUND.

A Beautiful Poem Written By Mrs. E. D. Hundley, of Greensboro. Picture of Monument.

Gillies, first name not recorded in any history, was killed by Tarleton's dragoons near Oak Ridge, on the morning of Feb. 12th, 1781, during Greene's famous retreat to the north side of Dan river. He was with a scouting party; but had just been dismounted and made to exchange horses with the guide and had been ordered to the rear, with information for the Colonel. The dragoons overtook the bugler, who was left in the race owing to his rescue; but too late to save him. They killed eighteen of the dragoons in the fight and captured the captain. The Literary Societies of Oak Ridge Institute have erected this cenotaph to the memory of the bugler. It cost them about $250.00. The bronze tablet

is very beautiful. At the top is the figure of the bugler, in the uniform of Lee's Legion, superbly mounted. The following is the inscription:

GILLIES.
"Light Horse Harry" Lee's Bugler. Dulce et decorum pro patria mori. Erected by the Literary Societies and Alumni of Oak Ridge Institute, May 6th, 1898, to the memory of the gallant Gillies, who fell under the swords of Tarleton's dragoons near Oak Ridge, N. C., Feb. 12th, 1781; a noble sacrifice to his own generosity and for his country's freedom.

The ceremonies attending the unveiling of the beautiful and fitting monument to the brave Gillies at the Battle Ground today were impressive and inspiring. The clouds of the early morn were scattered ere the sun had reached its zenith and a large crowd were present to witness the unveiling. The High Point band, in full uniform, discoursed inspiring airs, the colors of the two female colleges of Greensboro and the stars and stripes fluttered in the balmy springtime breeze, and patriotism was at full tide. The speakers were at their best and captivated their hearers with eloquent, patriotic words. The length of the program, with the beautiful poem, printed below, occupies so much space that a synopsis of the speeches cannot be given today. Prof. M. H. Holt was master of ceremonies and in a happy manner did he perform these duties.

The following is the entire programme of the unveiling:

Invocation—Rev. T. M. Johnson, Greensboro, N. C.
Music—High Point Cornet Band.
Presentation of the Cenotaph to the Guilford Battle Ground Company—R. T. Barnhill, Philomathean Society Oak Ridge Institute.
Speech of acceptance on behalf of the company—Z. V. Taylor, Esq., Greensboro.

—Music.
The part of young men in the Revolution—W. L. Criddlebaugh, Athenian Society, Oak Ridge Institute.
"The Bugler Boy"—A poem by Mrs. E. D. Hundley, of Greensboro.
Remarks in Behalf of Alumni—Hon. John R. Webster, Reidsville.
Remarks by Distinguished Visitors. Patriotic Songs.—Young ladies of State Normal College.
Unveiling Cenotaph—Miss Capel, Greensboro Female College, Miss Holt, Salem Female Academy, Miss McGhee, State Normal College, Miss Holt, Oak Ridge Institute.
Prof. J. Allen Holt read the following poem written by Mrs. E. D. Hundley.

THE BUGLER BOY.

'Tis as sad a story as ever was told
Of the "Bugler Boy," with a heart of gold.
A beardless youth, so fair to see
Who rode with "Light Horse Harry" Lee.
'Twas chill and morn, in the wintry sky
Where the bitter winds, with a moan, Went by—
But the Bugler Boy with his shining horn
Was blithe and gay, as a summer morn.
He thought of home, as he scoured the plain,
Of the mother he soon should see again,
Of the little brothers and sisters at play,
How they dreamed of him so far away.
With Harry Lee, through forest and field,
With never a sword, with never a shield,
Only a bugle, whose mellow note,
Was sweet as a strain from the wild bird's throat.
With Harry Lee, the trusted and tried,
This boy of fifteen, with a soldier's pride,
Rode boldly forth on that direful day,
On the rode where the cruel Tarleton lay.
Hark! the clatter of hoofs! Who is it comes there?
'Tis Tarleton's men, with swords all bare,
Ho! ride for your life brave Harry Lee,
They are ten to one, so turn and flee.
He is off like a flash, like a glance of light,
But the Bugler Boy, oh! pitiful sight!
His horse is down, too feeble for flight
And the unarmed boy, o'erpowered by might,
Cut down by the swords of that dastardly crew,
Pierced by their bayonets through and through,
He lay in death, his mother's joy—
The murdered, but glorified, Bugler Boy.
His comrades saw how the deed was done
And heedless of meeting a hundred to one
Dashed from their coverts with vengeance
And put them to rout with sword and fire.
Placid and calm, a smile on his face,
They found the poor boy in Death's cold embrace
All bathed in blood, and close by his side
Shone the silvery bugle, his boyish pride.
Where the grand old oaks, like sentinels stand,
Their giant branches o'er shading the land,
They made him a grave, 'neath the dewy sod
And left him, sweetly sleeping with God.
A hundred years have passed since then,
A century, and more, in the lives of men,
But acts like these, and deeds sublime
Are not effaced by the tide of time.
So we come today with pulses high,
To rear a shaft, toward the bending sky,
Where the name of Gillies, dazzlingly bright,
Shall shine through the ages, a beacon light,
Telling the world this story of old,
Of the Bugler Boy with a heart of gold.
The bonnie lad so fair to see
Who rode with "Light Horse Harry" Lee.
(Signed) E. D. H.

Without License.

Two canvassers, who were selling enlarged portraits without license, were arrested this morning. They are subject to a fine of $20 and costs and will have to pay a license tax of $10 each. They refused to do this, however, and will let the question go to trial in order to make a test case of it. Mayor Nelson was attending the celebration at the Battle Ground this morning and will hear the case this afternoon when he returns. There can be but little doubt but that the canvassers will have to pay the tax as the city ordinance is very explicit in regard to this matter.

Mr. Otterbourg Dead.

Mr. J. J. Otterbourg, who, it will be remembered, hanged himself last Sunday afternoon, but was discovered and taken down before life was extinct, lingered until last night about 10 o'clock when he died. It was thought a day or two ago that he would get well. He seemed to be improving fast but only for a short while. The interment will be made this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
London, May 6—Dispatches received from Madrid say that the Spanish authorities are intimating that Commodore Dewey was entrapped by Spanish gunboats which had been concealed outside the harbor of Manila. Spanish bonds appear to be making a bee line for the bargain counter.

It is not at all probable that Admiral Dewey will be taken to task for talking too much.

Premier Sagasta appears to be getting a taste of war without the formality of going to the front.

Blanco's proclamations are undoubtedly contraband of war. They beat Pocahontas coal all hollow for heating purposes.

The Spaniard has a reputation of always being on the lookout for trouble. He ought to be very, very happy just at present.

Gen. Weyler refused to respond when the Madrid mob called at his residence. True worth was ever modest and retiring.

Signor Marconi, the inventor of the wireless system of telegraphy, would find Manila a most remunerative basis of operation just at present.

In the municipal elections all over the state the democrats seem to have been able to get on tolerably well without fusing with anybody.

It will be noted that thus far the Spanish squadron, with unparalleled ferocity, has harried the seas to keep out of reach of Admiral Sampson.

All things considered, it would be better if certain gentlemen much given to the use of figures of speech would go to something other than the late war for their similes.

Gen. Weyler declared in an interview that when he conducted the war he did not pad his bullets. Padding was a process that the general reserved exclusively for his victories.

Manufacturers of guns and projectiles are not the only ones to whom the war is bringing prosperity. The demands of the headline artists are proving a veritable Eldorado to the type foundry.

Even if the Queen Regent of Spain is compelled to resign there is no reason why she should lack for pin money. The columns and check book of the New York Journal are always at her service.

Senator Robledo shook the cortex from center to circumference with a declaration that autonomy is a failure. The celerity with which the senator reaches a conclusion indicates that he is equipped with quadruple screw intellects.

The diplomatic corps at Washington seems to be greatly exercised as to what will be done with the Philippines. One thing is tolerably certain—when this country gets ready to dispose of the islands it will do so without troubling the diplomats.

If the Spanish fleet succeeds in overtaking the Oregon it will find itself in the position of the Dutchman who caught the wildcat and then yelled for his son John to help him turn it loose.

The report comes from Madrid that certain newspapers have been seized for telling the truth. Quite proper. Such a departure from their usual policy should not be tolerated for a single moment.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centers in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at C. Harris Lithia Water of South Carolina.

Contains more Lithia than any other. Lithia Spring Water on the market. If the Harris Lithia Water is not superior to any other water on the market, do you think the following noted physicians would state that it is? They have no interest in Harris Lithia Water:

Mr J T Harris, Proprietor Harris Lithia Springs;
Dear Sir—While it is contrary to my custom to give testimonials to remedial agents, I feel free to attest to the efficacy of the Harris Lithia Water (when used in large quantities) in the rheumatic and gouty diatheses; in engaged states of the kidneys; in inflammation of the bladder, and in all cases where there is an excess of solids in the urine. Yours respectfully,
GEO HOWE, M D

Mr. J. T. Harris:
Dear Sir: I have found the use of the water from your Lithia Spring in South Carolina so efficacious in the case of a young lady patient of mine, who has suffered for years with diabetes, with all its attendant ailments, that I want to add my testimonial to the many you already have. The patient I refer to has used the water freely at home for scarcely a month now, with more beneficial results than from months spent at the different noted lithia springs in different parts of the United States, besides long-continued use of the same waters at home. Other of my patients and friends are now using the water with best results. I cordially recommend it to all suffering from similar diseases.

Very respectfully yours,
THOMAS S POWELL, M D,
President Southern Medical College, Atlanta, Ga.

Asheville, N C, April 20, 1893
An extended clinical use of the Harris Lithia Water prompts me to the statement that I regard it as one of the best, if not the best, Lithia Waters known to the profession. In the condition of Phosphatic Urine its action is marvelous. Its use in the rheumatic and gouty diseases affords more comfort than either the Buffalo or Londonderry waters.
Very truly yours,
JOHN HEY WILLIAMS, M D

After a long and varied experience in the use of mineral waters from many sources, both foreign and domestic, I am fully persuaded that the Harris Lithia Water possesses efficacy in the treatment of affections of the kidney and bladder unequalled by any other water of which I have made trial.

This opinion is based upon observation of its effects upon my patients for the past three years, during which time I have prescribed it freely and almost uniformly with benefit in the medical maladies above mentioned.
A N TALLEY, M D
Columbia, S C, October 8, 1892.

The waters of the Lithia Springs are odorless, free from color, with a pleasant saline taste, rather palatable. When taken in considerable quantity, they do not nauseate, purge or produce any feeling of discomfort. I find from the analysis of the waters, they contain Chloride Sodium, Carb. Potash, Carb. Soda, Carb. Lithia, Carb. Iron and Sulphate Magnesia. These waters act directly on the mucous coating of the stomach and alimentary canal; they are powerfully alterative and tonic. They are everywhere used on inflamed or irritated surfaces. They act upon the blood, changing it from acid to alkaline. In indigestion, catarrh of the stomach and gastralgia, supplemented with a proper diet, they are a certain cure. The action upon the kidneys is marked. The sodium, potash, soda, lithia, are the best solvents of uric acid; all calculi of an acid character, whether literary or cystic, are steadily dissolved. I am confident that the profession will find it very useful in cases where this class of water is required.

J Q WILBUR, M D
Walterboro, S C, April 10, 1892.

Baltimore, June 24, 1896
J T Harris, Esq, Harris Springs, S C:
Dear Sir—I have been using Harris Lithia Water for some time, and I will say to you that it is my opinion that the Harris Lithia Water is by far the best Lithia Water that I have ever used, and that it has done me a great deal of good, and I think that it is a most valuable remedy.
R C HOFFMAN,
President S A L R R

Atlanta, Ga, Feb 24, 1897.
Mr J T Harris, Harris Springs, S C:
Dear Sir—I have found Harris Lithia Water an exceedingly valuable remedy for persons suffering from kidney and bladder troubles. Therefore take pleasure in recommending it.

Respectfully,
JAS F ALEXANDER,
President Board of Health

Mr J T Harris:
Dear Sir—It gives me pleasure to say that I have been using your Lithia Water for several months past, and that I believe it to be one of the best Lithia Waters that I have come in contact with.
Yours truly,
EST JOHN,
Vice President
Charleston, S C, Sept 20, 1893

Mr J T Harris:
My Dear Sir—I am constrained to send you this testimonial of the efficacy of the Harris Lithia Water. The value of the testimonial may be enhanced from the fact that it goes to you unsolicited. As a friend of humanity, I feel bound to withhold my knowledge of its virtues no longer. I have been using the water for more than a year with marked benefit. To any one troubled with kidney disorder it is the remedy par excellence. I prefer it to the Buffalo Lithia Water.

Very truly yours,
A C KAUFMAN,
President Vanderbilt Benevolent Association of Charleston, S C

Chester, S C
Dear Sir—For the past six months I have been using Harris Lithia Water with the most excellent results, where I have been able to get my patients to drink a sufficient quantity of it daily. The carbonated has no equal in gastric disturbances. It is an excellent table water. It is a pleasant laxative and is a sure cure for flatulent dyspepsia.
S M DAVEGA, M D

Atlanta, Ga, April 20, 1897
I have used for some time Harris Lithia Water in my family, and also with my patients, and find it the best water I ever used in catarrhal condition of the urethra and bladder. It is also a good diuretic water.
G G ROY, M D

We guarantee that one glass of Harris Lithia carbonated water will relieve any case of indigestion in one minute's time or money refunded, or if taken after each meal will cure the worse case of indigestion.

So Tired! So Tired!

Chronic Dyspepsia!
For ten years I had been a severe sufferer from chronic dyspepsia, which was pronounced incurable. I was completely run down, and in the summer season was not able to do anything and spent a great part of the time lying down. I could not touch meat of any kind, or any solid food whatever, as I could not digest it at all and had to live on crackers and light diet. I was very nervous, would have severe nervous spells, and could not get any natural sleep, I was so restless. I suffered all the time from chronic dysentery, which kept me weakened down. That was my condition when I determined as a last resort to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I had tried so many treatments and so many patent medicines without benefit that I had no faith in anything and had almost made up my mind not to try another thing, when Mrs. Person came to my house last April and induced me to try her Remedy. I bought a dozen bottles. Felt no relief whatever until I was on the fourth bottle, when I knew I was getting better. I became stronger, got so I could sleep well and there was no necessity for me to lie down in the day time. I took twenty-two bottles before I stopped. My digestion is now perfect, and I can eat meat, vegetables, and anything else I want, and as much as I want. When I commenced the Remedy I weighed 98 pounds, now I weigh 115 pounds. Dysentery perfectly cured, and it is all owing to Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. It is everything claimed for it.

GERMANY ITCHING FOR A FUSS.

Will Demand a Price If There is a Transfer of Philippines.

Berlin, May 5.—This morning's papers indicate the excited interest that Germans are beginning to take regarding the ultimate fall of the Philippines. Their possessions in New Guinea and in the China seas will make Germany's consent necessary to any disposition of the islands.

Germany would only agree to a transfer of possession of the Philippines to another Power provided she received suitable compensation. A good deal of irritation is sure to grow up about the Philippines.

CUBANS MAY GO FIRST.

Their Expedition Will Probably Precede Regulars to Cuba.

Tampa, Fla., May 5.—It is reported tonight on what appears to be good authority that the Cuban troops now recruiting in this city under General Nunez will be reviewed tomorrow by a member of General Shafter's staff,
and will be recognized officially.

Five drill masters will be provided for them and active instructions will be begun at once. At the review there will be turned over to Gen. Nunez 5,000 regulation uniforms, 25,000 rifles, 5,000,000 rounds of ammunition and 1,500 horses. Part of this equipment is for soldiers now on the island under Gen. Gomez who have not the proper equipment or supplies.

There is now little doubt that the government has arranged with the Cuban leaders to provide ample transports and convoys for the entire Cuban army now here, and that the date of their departure has been set and will precede that of the regular troops.

North Carolinians Promoted.

Among the nominations sent by the President to the senate last Wednesday are the names of two North Carolinians. Mr. William T. Gray, of Winston, was nominated to be assistant paymaster of the navy. Mr.
Gray was educated at the naval academy and has been employed in the navy department at Washington for the last three years.

Mr. Pope Washington, of Goldsboro was nominated to be an assistant engineer in the navy. Mr. Washington was a member of the crew of the Maine and was aboard the battleship when she was blown up in Havana harbor.

LETTER FROM MR. LOCKHART.

A Plain and Comprehensive Statement of Democratic Creed.

We give below a portion of a letter written by the Hon. James A. Lockhart to Mr. J. G. Boylin, editor of the Wadesboro Messenger-Intelligencer. We commend the letter to careful consideration of those who are now advocating fusion—those who desire office and power at any price.
Mr. Lockhart is not out for any nomination but as he says "wears now the armor and arms of a private."

"The democratic party is the party
of ALL the people; in its true place,
it knows no classes or distinctions; it neither holds nor allows that in government one good man is any better than another, aggrandizes the individual, makes him strong, self-reliant and independent; intends that he shall not seek government aims or paternal munificence. It tenderly regards and would elevate the humble, and would make such conscious of his rights and self-respect. It would repress the arrogance, exactions and extortions of the powerful; it teaches that personal liberty and property rights are sacred; encourages manly thrift and stimulates the ambition to good citizenship, and the acquisition of comforts and wealth by meritorious life and conduct. It is against tyranny and centralized power; it stands for equal and exact justice; it has no place in it for loafers and socialists;
it has no patience with laws which extend special privileges to any classes, either of persons or property, and as little patience with any such as have for their aim the striking down of any classes, either of persons or property. It can be just to the individual as to the corporation which represents the earnings of individuals; it will not tolerate undue aggressions by either, nor anybody that would be unjust to either. It does not believe in bartering for the great trusts
of public offices; it believes that a man who will barter for offices will barter
the offices and the influence and power of them, when he gets them; it believes that a man who will steal for you will steal from you, and that a man who will buy you, will sell you. The times and occasion require courage and unselfish frankness to elaborate before the people the doctrines above mentioned—and others equally wholesome
—and in such way and under such circumstances, that it would be evident to even the mountebank that his charges, that the advocate was selfish or a hireling, would only be received by the people as security and lying.

"I shall do my duty as I see it and I cherish gratefully the partialities of
of my party; and wear now the armor
and arms of a private, and when it makes it grand charge, I'll be there.

"Cordially yours.

"James A. Lockhart."

Bargain Day in the Rural Store.

"You say them shoes is wuth $1, but you'll take 75 cents if I pay cash,
won't you?"

"Yes."

"Then you'll fling in a pair of woollen socks, I guess?"

"Reckon so."

"Hold on; them shoes hain't got no strings, have they?"

"I'll give you a pair."

"Better make hit two pair; one will soon wear out."

"All right, here they are."

"Looks like you might gimme a pair of suspenders fer good measure."

"Well, rather than miss a trade I'll do it. What else?"

"When a feller pays a bill you allus set 'em up, don't you?"

"Yes; what'll you take."

"Two segars an' a pound o' cheese."

The Juniors are Thankful.

At a meeting of Greensboro Council, No. 13, Jr. O. U. A. M., last night the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, First, That the hearty thanks of Greensboro Council No. 13, Jr. O. U. A. M., are due and are hereby extended to all who aided us in making our celebration of May 3d a success—to the speakers of the occasion who so well performed their part, to our visiting brethren who came from a distance to lend their aid and encouragement to the exercises of the day, and to all who encouraged us by their presence and otherwise.

"Resolved, Second, That our special thanks are extended to the city press and the business men of the city for their very material "assistance."

A Correction.

In the notes of the Prowler the other day there appeared an item in regard to a young man among the Greensboro volunteers, now in camp at Raleigh, who telegraphed that he was coming home. We were erroneously informed. The young man had no intention of coming home; the telegram was sent to a young lady friend in a spirit of fun and humor. The desire to do no one an injustice and deal fairly with every one prompts this notice and correction. In reality the reference meant no unkind criticism, though it was given the writer as bona fide, and in that we were imposed upon.

Our Neighbors are Coming.

The Danville Dramatic Club will appear here next Monday night for the benefit of K of P. lodge of this place and that our people may know how much the people of Danville appreciate their club, they are going to run an excursion from Danville here to see "My Friend From India," played by this company, and it is to be hoped that our people, not only the K. of P. members, but every one will turn out and give this club a good house and a warm reception.
